

CALL FOR PAPERS – TRACK: Transition towards Circular Economy Business Models supported by innovation and Industry 4.0

Dear colleagues,

We are delighted to invite you to submit articles to the track ‘Transition towards Circular Economy Business Models supported by innovation and Industry 4.0’, which is included into SIG 01 - B4S - Business for Society of the 2023 EURAM.

We welcome submissions that address original and innovative research that paves the way to leverage the discussion of how organisations can revamp business models aiming to the circular economy principles. In addition, analyses of the role of digital technologies in facilitating the adoption of those business models are also into the scope of the track.

We would be most grateful for receiving your submission. Please, see the guidelines and deadlines of 2023 EURAM at its website: <https://conferences.euram.academy/2022conference/call-for-papers/>
