

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

The Culture of the Artificial

Translating the Interpretive Approach for Computational Research
Workshop

October 24-25, 2024, Copenhagen (Denmark)

This workshop invites extended abstracts that address methodological issues in humanities and social sciences – both constructively and critically – arising at the intersection between computational and interpretive research approaches.

Topics include but are not limited to:

- Frameworks for integrating computation and interpretation
- The role of qualitative data in computational research
- The role AI-generated content for knowledge and meaning production
- Knowledge claims and epistemic justifications of diverging methodologies
- AI and the humanities
- AI and social sciences
- Philosophical and sociological analyses of such endeavors
- Challenges of combining agent-based modeling and qualitative work
- Computational approaches to ethnographic work
- System Dynamics perspectives to qualitative data

More information is available on the workshop's website: <https://secchidavi.wixsite.com/drone-workshop24>

Please submit an extended abstract of no more than 1000 words (excluding bibliography) by August 1st, 2024 (23:59 CET).

Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact us through the website or via email to Davide Secchi (secchi@sdu.dk).

Thank you very much for your attention and looking forward to hearing from you.
